Dear Jonathan & John,

I just wanted to drop you both a quick note to say thanks for the dinner on Thursday evening and to wish you all the best for the future.

No hard feelings but I wouldn't want to deal with you ever again professionally!

Seriously though I do admit that at the beginning I questioned the value of enlisting your services – how wrong was I? Quite frankly we were out of our depth and would have failed miserably had we not had your experience, knowledge and skills to rely upon.

I learned a lot from working with you guys (and Brian too) and in a perverse way got huge satisfaction from the achievement we all made in rebuilding the Factory and re-establishing the business back in Alva.

Thanks again and if you are ever in the area please feel free to drop in for a coffee and to say hi. John – remember to bring your clubs!

Best regards and thanks again for all your help!

Colin Morrison
